Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction
Karen Wigen  1

Constructs

1. Islands in the Making of an Atlantic Oceania, 1500–1800
   John R. Gillis  21
2. Vessels of Exchange: The Global Shipwright in the Pacific
   Hans Konrad Van Tilburg  38
3. Maritime Ideologies and Ethnic Anomalies: Sea Space and the Structure of Subalternity in the Southeast Asian Littoral
   Jennifer L. Gaynor  53

Empires

4. The Organization of Oceanic Empires: The Iberian World in the Habsburg Period
   Carla Rahn Phillips  71
5. The Ottoman “Discovery” of the Indian Ocean in the Sixteenth Century
   Giancarlo Casale  87
6. Lines of Plunder or Crucible of Modernity? The Legal Geography of the English-Speaking Atlantic, 1660–1825
   Eliga H. Gould  105
7. Transgressive Exchange: Circumventing Eighteenth-Century Atlantic Commercial Restrictions, or The Discount of Monte Christi
   Alan L. Karras  121
Sociologies

8 “Tavern of the Seas”? The Cape of Good Hope as an Oceanic Crossroads during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries
Kerry Ward 137

9 That Turbulent Soil: Seafarers, the “Black Atlantic,” and Afro-Caribbean Identity
Alan Gregor Cobley 153

10 Race, Migration, and Port-City Radicalism: West Indian Longshoremen and the Politics of Empire, 1880–1920
Risa L. Faussette 169

11 South Asian Seafarers and Their Worlds: c. 1870–1930s
G. Balachandran 186

Transgressors

12 Marking Water: Piracy and Property in the Premodern West
Emily Sohmer Tai 205

13 With the Sea as Their Domain: Pirates and Maritime Lordship in Medieval Japan
Peter D. Shapinsky 221

14 The Pirate and the Gallows: An Atlantic Theater of Terror and Resistance
Marcus Rediker 239

Contributors 251

Index 255