Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction  Robert E. Buswell Jr. and Timothy S. Lee 1

PART ONE: Overview

Chapter 1.  A Quarter-Millennium of Christianity in Korea
  James Huntley Grayson 7

PART TWO: The Beginnings of Christianity in Korea

Chapter 2.  Human Relations as Expressed in Vernacular Catholic Writings of the Late Chosŏn Dynasty
  Cho Kwang 29

Chapter 3.  Kollumba Kang Wansuk, an Early Catholic Activist and Martyr
  Gari Ledyard 38

Chapter 4.  Chinese Protestant Literature and Early Korean Protestantism
  Sung-Deuk Oak 72

PART THREE: Christianity, Nationalism, and Japanese Colonialism

Chapter 5.  Church and State Relations in the Japanese Colonial Period
  Wi Jo Kang 97

Chapter 6.  Cradle of the Convenant: Ahn Changho and the Christian Roots of the Korean Constitution
  Jacqueline Pak 116

Chapter 7.  Preaching the Apocalypse in Colonial Korea: The Protestant Millennialism of Kil Sŏn-ju
  Chong Bum Kim 149
Contents

Chapter 8. Mothers, Daughters, Biblewomen, and Sisters: An Account of “Women’s Work” in the Korea Mission Field

  Donald N. Clark
  167

Part Four: Christianity and the Struggles for Democracy and Reunification

Chapter 9. Carrying the Torch in the Darkest Hours: The Sociopolitical Origins of Minjung Protestant Movements

  Paul Yunsik Chang
  195

Chapter 10. Minjung Theology’s Biblical Hermeneutics: An Examination of Minjung Theology’s Appropriation of the Exodus Account

  Wonil Kim
  221

Chapter 11. Korean Protestants and the Reunification Movement

  Yi Mahn-yol
  238

Chapter 12. The Division and Reunification of a Nation: Theological Reflections on the Destiny of the Korean People

  Anselm Kyongsuk Min
  258

Part Five: Growth and Challenges

Chapter 13. Sibling Rivalry in Twentieth-Century Korea: Comparative Growth Rates of Catholic and Protestant Communities

  Donald Baker
  283

Chapter 14. Modernization and the Explosive Growth and Decline of Korean Protestant Religiosity

  Byong-suh Kim
  309

Chapter 15. Beleaguered Success: Korean Evangelicalism in the Last Decade of the Twentieth Century

  Timothy S. Lee
  330

Chapter 16. In Search of Healing: Evangelical Conversion of Women in Contemporary South Korea

  Kelly H. Chong
  351

Chapter 17. The Christian-Buddhist Encounter in Korea

  Kang-nam Oh
  371

A Select Bibliography for the Study of Korean Christianity
Contributors
Index

387
393
397