CONTENTS

Preface, vii

Introduction: Differentiation and Uncertainty, 1
SATSUKI KAWANO, GLENDA S. ROBERTS, AND SUSAN ORPETT LONG

I. CHANGE OVER TIME, 25
   GLENDA S. ROBERTS

2. Being a Man in a Straitened Japan: The View from Twenty Years Later, 60
   GORDON MATHEWS

II. WORK CONDITIONS AND EXPERIENCES, 81
3. Working Women of the Bubble Generation, 83
   SAWA KUROTANI

4. “Making an Ant’s Forehead of Difference”: Organic Agriculture as an Alternative Lifestyle in Japan, 105
   NANCY ROSENBERGER

5. Shelf Lives and the Labors of Loss: Food, Livelihoods, and Japan’s Convenience Stores, 135
   GAVIN HAMILTON WHITELAW

III. EXPLORING NEW ROLES AND IDENTITIES, 161
6. Single Women in Marriage and Employment Markets in Japan, 163
   LYNNE Y. NAKANO
7. The Aging of the Japanese Family: Meanings of Grandchildren in Old Age, 183
   SUSAN ORPETT LONG

8. Barrier-Free Brothels: Sex Volunteers, Prostitutes, and People with Disabilities, 202
   KAREN NAKAMURA

IV. MAKING SOCIAL TIES, 221
9. Recreating Connections: Nonprofit Organizations’ Attempts to Foster Networking among Mothers of Preschoolers, 223
   SATSUKI KAWANO

10. The Divination Arts in Girl Culture, 247
    LAURA MILLER

V. PERSISTING PATTERNS AND CONTINUITIES, 269
11. Education after the “Lost Decade(s)”: Stability or Stagnation?, 271
    PETER CAVE

12. Lightweight Cars and Women Drivers: The De/construction of Gender Metaphors in Recessionary Japan, 300
    JOSHUA HOTAKA ROTH

13. The Story of a Seventy-Three-Year-Old Woman Living Alone: Her Thoughts on Death Rites, 316
    SATSUKI KAWANO

Glossary, 339
Contributors, 347
Index, 349