Contents

Preface vii

1. Asian Culture and Psychotherapy: An Overview 1
   Wen-Shing Tseng, Suk Choo Chang, and Masahisa Nishizono

I. Personality and Psychopathology

2. Personality and Psychopathology: Insights from Chinese Studies 21
   Fanny M. Cheung, Yiqun Gan, and Poman Lo

3. Culture, Psychopathology, and Psychotherapy: Changes Observed in Japan 40
   Masahisa Nishizono

II. Asian Psychology: Theoretical Exploration of Parent-Child Relations

4. The Ajase Complex and Its Implications 57
   Keigo Okonogi

   Sudhir Kakar

   Osamu Kitayama

7. The Oedipus Complex as Reflected in Asian Cultural Products 98
   Wen-Shing Tseng, Kwang-iel Kim, and Jing Hsu

III. Traditional Thought, Philosophy, and Psychotherapy

8. Confucian Thought: Implications for Psychotherapy 129
   Yan Heqin
vi Contents

9. Daoist Philosophy: Application in Psychotherapy 142
   Dersen Young, Wen-Shing Tseng, and Liang Zhou

10. Buddhist Teaching: Relation to Healing 156
    Suk Choo Chang and Rhee Dong-Shick

IV. Unique Psychotherapeutic Approach from Asian Culture

11. The Philosophical Background of Morita Therapy:
    Its Application to Therapy 169
    Kenji Kitanishi

12. Japanese Buddhist Thought and Naikan Therapy 186
    Ryuzo Kawahara

    Wen-Shing Tseng, Jing Hsu, Keisuke Ebata, S. Peter Kim, and Oksuk Mary Kim

    Suk Choo Chang

V. Psychotherapeutic Experiences from Asia

15. Culture-Relevant Psychotherapy in Korea: Clinical Insight 225
    Kwang-Iel Kim

16. Culture and Psychotherapy in Korea: Past and Present 239
    Suk Choo Chang

17. The Historical Trends of Psychotherapy in China:
    Cultural Review 249
    Wen-Shing Tseng, Sing Lee, and Lü Qiuyun

18. Integration and Application for Therapy 265
    Wen-Shing Tseng

Glossary 281
References 287
Contributors 307
Index 311