CONTENTS

1  Introduction: Doing Fieldwork in Japan
   THEODORE C. BESTOR, PATRICIA G. STEINHOFF, AND VICTORIA LYON BESTOR

STARTING OUT

21  Taking Note of Teen Culture in Japan:
    Dear Diary, Dear Fieldworker
    MERRY ISAACS WHITE

36  New Notes from the Underground:
    Doing Fieldwork without a Site
    PATRICIA G. STEINHOFF

55  From Scrambled Messages to an Impromptu Dip:
    Serendipity in Finding a Field Location
    JOY HENDRY

71  Fieldwork with Japanese Religious Groups
    HELEN HARDACRE
Chance, Fate, and Undisciplined Meanderings: A Pilgrimage through the Fieldwork Maze
IAN READER

NAVIGATING BUREAUCRATIC MAZES

Getting Cooperation in Policy-Oriented Research
SAMUEL COLEMAN

JET Lag: Studying a Multilevel Program over Time
DAVID L. MCCONNELL

Getting in and Getting along in the Prosecutors Office
DAVID T. JOHNSON

In Search of the Japanese State
SHEILA A. SMITH

Doing Media Research in Japan
ELLIS S. KRAUSS

ASKING: SURVEYS, INTERVIEWS, ACCESS

Fact-Rich, Data-Poor: Japan as Sociologists’ Heaven and Hell
MARY C. BRINTON

Beginning Trials and Tribulations: Rural Community Study and Tokyo City Survey
SUZANNE CULTER

Research among the Bureaucrats: Substance and Process
JOHN CREIGHTON CAMPBELL

Dealing with the Unexpected: Field Research in Japanese Politics
DAVID M. ARASE

Studying the Social History of Contemporary Japan
ANDREW GORDON